

OCEANWOODS CONDOMINIUM HOUSE RULES

Revised 2015

Section 1: A Homeowner may not make any alterations to the exterior of the Home of any part of the common elements without the written consent of the Board of Managers.

Consent may be requested, in writing, through the Managing Agent or Board of Managers. The Managing Agent or Board of Managers is obligated to respond to the request within 90 days and failure to do so within the stipulated time shall not mean that there is no objection to the proposed modification or alteration . Homeowners MUST receive permission IN WRITING from the Managing Agent or the Board of Managers before acting upon the request.

Section 2: There are NO attachments or alterations permitted to the vinyl siding. If the siding is damaged as a result of any such actions, the homeowner will be responsible for any and all repairs to the vinyl siding. Additionally, any attachments or alterations to the vinyl siding by a homeowner will result in a fine to that homeowner.

Section 3: No terrace, patio or deck shall be installed in any yard area without the written consent of the Managing Agent or the Board of Managers

Section 4: No Homeowner shall paint the exterior surfaces of the windows or doors opening out of his home without the consent of the Managing Agent or the Board of Managers. Storm Doors on each unit must be brown in color. The Front Door of the unit must be white, brown, beige or natural wood in color.

Section 5: No Homeowner shall erect a fence or gate in the Community without the prior written consent of the Managing Agent or the Board of Managers. Fences placed around properties should be no higher than 6 feet. Any fence surrounding a property is required to have at least a 36 inch gate that can be accessed in case of emergency. Only Wood or PVC fences are allowed. PVC fence materials MUST be approved by the Managing Agent or the Board of Managers via a written request that is accompanied by a sample of the PVC material .

Section 6: No Homeowner shall erect a Backyard Shed without the prior written consent of the Managing Agent or the Board of Managers. According to the NYC Building Code, Backyard Sheds must be 120 square feet or less. The maximum height of any Shed is 7 feet 6 inches and the Shed must not be permanently affixed to the ground.

Section 7: Owners of a home, members of their families, their employees, guests and pets shall not use the premises in any manner that would be illegal, disturbing or a nuisance to other Owners or in a way to be injurious to the reputation of the Condominium.

Section 8: The Common Elements shall not be obstructed, littered, defaced or misused in any matter.

Section 9: Every Homeowner shall be liable for any and all damage to the common elements and/or the property of the Condominium, which shall be caused by the Homeowner or such other person for whose conduct he is legally responsible.

Section 10: Every Homeowner must promptly perform all maintenance and repair work to his own Home which, if neglected, would affect the Community in its entirety or in a part belonging to other Homeowners. He will be responsible for the damages and liabilities that his failure to do so may engender.

Section 11: All repairs to internal installations of the Home, such as telephones, electrical wiring, plumbing and sanitary installations shall be at the Homeowner's expense.

Section 12: No person shall park a vehicle in or otherwise obstruct ingress or egress to another Homeowners parking pad. Parking shall be restricted to the Homeowner's Parking Pad (driveway). No boats, buses, horse trailers, campers, Mobile Homes or Trucks with commercial plates are to be parked on the owner's Parking Pad (Driveway).
